

KELLER CHURCH OF CHRIST

ADULT BIBLE CLASSES -- SPRING QUARTER 2012

March 4th thru May 30th

Sunday

"Training for Excellence"

During this study we will be in 1st and 2nd Timothy, Titus and Philemon. As we study these letters we will see the instruction Paul gave to these young men in regards to being leaders and caring for the church. We will see how important the need for spiritual leadership and discipline is to help defend ourselves and those we lead from the attacks of Satan.

Wednesday

"Something To Hold On To"

Auditorium

This study comes from 1st and 2nd Peter where we will see the encouragement that was given to Christians while undergoing trials. In a time of many uncertainties we can see though this study how strong the "Truth" is and gives us "Something To Hold On To".

Teacher – Dave Dunham

"Person to Person Evangelism 101"

Room 42

This course is designed to significantly increase the individuals awareness of and effectiveness in reaching lost souls with the good news about Jesus Christ. This class is geared to the individual with little or no experience in teaching the gospel. The course entails daily Bible study and training in methods of reaching and teaching lost souls. While several study methods will be taught, the principles can be applied to any method that the individual currently uses as well.

Teacher – Ed Allen

Hebrews: "Jesus, God's Final Answer"

Room 33

God has spoken in His Son. This in-depth textual class will consider angels, Old Testament characters and themes, the Levitical system, the Ark of the Covenant, heroes of faith, and much more. Of course the central focus will be the surpassing greatness of Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith. The discussion will continually connect doctrine with encouragement. Outlines, notes, and background materials will be available.

Teacher – Cory Collins

Ladies Class (a Bible study for ladies only)

Room 31

This study is designed for ladies of all ages. It will have a purpose of applying its principles to our lives as Christians today.

Teacher – Sharry Lanier & Clarice Langat
